

media release

Hoffman Estates Offers Workshop to Address Issues Surrounding Divorce

Hoffman Estates partners with the Village of Schaumburg and the Schaumburg Township Library to serve residents contemplating or going through a divorce.

3rd annual Divorce 101
October 28
10am-3:15pm

1,043,171 Illinois residents are separated from their partner or divorced. Although divorce is common, the process can be very complicated and confusing.

Divorce 101 was developed to answer commonly asked questions about divorce. Developed for individuals considering or going through divorce, participants will walk away with an understanding of basic divorce law, financial planning during and after a divorce, learning from relationships, practical things to think about when considering divorce, how divorce affects children and co-parenting after a divorce. Expert advice is given by attorneys, financial counselors, psychologists, and social workers.

Held at the Schaumburg Township Library.
Cost is $18
Includes admission into the workshop, lunch and printed materials.

Registration is needed. Brochure/registration forms are available at the Hoffman Estates Village Hall, Schaumburg Family Counseling Center, the Schaumburg Township Main Library and online at www.hoffmanestates.org.

Sponsored by the Village of Hoffman Estates Department of Health and Human Services, The Village of Schaumburg Family Counseling Center, the Schaumburg Police Department Social Service Unit and the Schaumburg Township District Library.

For more information, please call 847-882-4445.

Contact Person:
Sheila Neely, Coordinator for Outreach and Prevention
847-781-2605

Original Release Date: October 3, 2006