The plat (as it is commonly called) is the legal description of the property, which indicates the size and shape of the land. This document is normally given to the homeowner at the closing of the house and should be kept for future reference.

Setback requirements for Individual zoning districts and corner lots may vary
Please contact (847) 882-9100 with questions